- At 1310Z on 6 October 1954 Chinese Communist swimmers were discovered in Tungchang Bay at the northeast end of North Ichiang (N 28-36, E 121-48). At 1348Z a sentry discovered two swimmers climbing the rocks in the area; when he opened fire, the swimmers took cover and then at 1356Z dived into the water. A search was made of the area but nothing was found.
